A Fall Feast of WORDS is Coming...

Strathcona County Library has an exciting lineup of authors coming for Fall Feast of Words in October.

Get a head start by checking out one of their books:

Sixty: The Beginning of the End, or the End of the Beginning?
by Ian Brown
How much life can you live in the fourth quarter, not knowing when the game might end?

They Left Us Everything
by Plum Johnson
What do you do when your parents leave you a 23-room house filled with half a century of memories and stuff?

This is Happy
by Camilla Gibb
A stirring memoir about moving from a place of incredible pain to find happiness in unexpected places.

Son of France
by Todd Babiak
Escape to the world of international political intrigue with the sequel to Babiak’s gritty thriller Come Barbarians.

Crash to Paywall: Canadian Newspapers and the Great Disruption
by Brian Gorman
Who is to blame for the disappearance of newspaper in Canada and what does the future of journalism look like?

The Hero’s Walk
by Anita Rau Badami
When his long-estranged daughter dies in a car accident in Canada, an aging Bengali man finds his life transformed by the arrival in India of his seven-year-old granddaughter.
